Today's Mass: OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING of the UNIVERSE (B)

Daniel 7: 13-14; Psalm 92; Apocalypse 1: 5-8; John 18: 33-37

First Reading: Daniel's somewhat mysterious description of the coming of the Son of Man was taken up by the New Testament writers as a title for Jesus Christ, whose 'sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away'.

Psalm: let us sing to the Lord, ascended and enthroned in Heaven.

Second Reading: alpha and omega are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. So, Jesus is the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

Gospel: Pilate asks Jesus about his kingship. Jesus' kingship, while it concerns what goes on in this world (we must not forget that), is not derived from this world but from beyond it. And Christ's kingship is about witnessing to the truth. Those who have a sense of truth respond to him.

Fr David

God loves his children

My name is _____

Jesus tells Pilate that he is a king like no other. Jesus is not interested in showing off power and strength like other kings. Jesus came to show us what God's kingdom of love is like.

JESUS IS MY KING

Join the dots

Pilate did not see Jesus in this way, because Jesus is not a king like any other king.

Listening to God's truth

Jesus wants us to listen to him and be on the side of God's truth. Which of the children is listening to Jesus' voice?

Unjumble the lines to see who is on the side of truth.

God's kingdom

In a kingdom, the people do what the king asks. God wants us to live in his kingdom. Who is doing what God asks?

Draw a circle around the children who are living in God's kingdom.

Code

How can we find out how to live in God's kingdom? Crack the code and write your answer in the speech bubble.

e = [blue diamond]    l = [orange circle]    s = [green heart]
i = [pink hexagon]    n = [green square]    t = [blue diamond]
j = [purple diamond]    o = [red diamond]    u = [yellow circle]

A PRAYER TO SAY

Dear Jesus, thank you for inviting me to belong to your kingdom of love. Help me to always listen to your words of truth and to follow your rule. Amen.

Five Bible Studies in the Advent Sunday Gospels

Mario Iannicelli will break open the forthcoming Advent Sunday Gospels with in-depth teaching and stimulating questions. As a result you will experience Sunday Mass in a new way! Five Wednesdays, beginning 24th November, 7:00pm - 8:00pm. Free of charge live sessions on YouTube. Info and registration: <https://comeandsee.org/advent>.

Do you have skills to offer as a Governor in the Catholic schools in Southwark?

The diocesan Education Commission is looking to build up its list of people able to offer time, expertise and commitment to support primary, secondary schools and sixth form colleges in Southwark. The Diocese needs local people from its parishes to volunteer as foundation governors in Catholic maintained schools and academies. It also needs people to become trustees/directors in their multi-academy trusts. Could you spare a few hours a month?

These are fulfilling roles though not without challenges. You do not need to be a parent or work in the education sector. The Diocese welcomes interest from all sectors of society and across all ages. It is looking for people with finance and accounting, legal and HR, premises and health and safety experience. Induction, training and mentoring will be provided.

Further info: <https://www.rcaoseducation.org.uk/could-you-become-a-governor/>.

Please pray

Today with Jesus

Lord, Jesus, today is Your day, and I want Your will to be done. So, whatever happens, hold my hand and let's face it together. Amen.

- Back to the Bible

God's Promises for Today

Heavenly Father, I have been so wishy-washy when it comes to taking hold of Your promises and making them mine. But today, I'm putting my foot down! I will not allow my human reason to talk me out of my spiritual inheritance. I will set my foot down on every promise that You have given me today. I'm going in! In Jesus' Name, Amen.

- Sharon Jayes

Good Morning Lord Prayer

Good morning, Lord! Today's a new day, a chance for a new start. Yesterday is gone and with it any regrets, mistakes, or failures I may have experienced. It's a good day to be glad and give thanks, and I do, Lord. Thank you for today, a new opportunity to love, give, and be all that you want me to be. Amen.

- Rebecca Barlow Jordan

Fill Me With the Spirit Today

Dear Lord, as we rise to meet each new day, please let us be filled with Your spirit. Wherever we go, let us spread love, joy, peace, goodness, and faithfulness. Let us desire to become more like you and to worship you in all we do. Help us desire these things so much more than the sin that entices us. Thank you for always going before us. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

- Dr. Charles Stanley

A Daily Prayer of Thanksgiving

Dear God, Thank you for your amazing power and work in our lives, thank you for your goodness and for your blessings over us. Thank you for your great love and care. Thank you for your sacrifice so that we might have freedom and life. Forgive us for when we don't thank you enough, for who you are, for all that you do, for all that you've given. Help us to set our eyes and our hearts on you afresh. Renew our spirits, fill us with your peace and joy. We love you and we need you, this day and every day. We give you praise and thanks, for You alone are worthy! In Jesus' Name, Amen.

- Debbie McDaniel

Parish Information Document (part 2)

The next section is about Evangelization, Catechesis and Formation. Under Evangelization we have a Parish Evangelization Team in formation; as is the case with everything at the moment its development has been delayed by the pandemic. David Cooper is the Chair of the Team, and he would be pleased to hear from anyone - from any of the four churches - who is interested in joining him on the Team.

We do, as you will know, have catechetical teams for First Holy Communion and Penance, for Confirmation, and for RCIA, led by Ingrid La Trobe, Gabrielle Ellis, and Andrew La Trobe respectively. The parish should be very grateful for the time and effort put in by so many catechists. A number of our catechists have obtained, or are studying for, the Archbishop's Certificate in Catechesis. (This was a course I introduced when I was the Director of the Diocesan Formation Centre, so I am delighted that it continues.)

Deacon Neil Philipson is in overall charge of adult formation in the parish, and we had a highly successful Sycamore programme before COVID cut it short.

The ninth section is about Catholic Education. We, of course, have our parish Primary School, St Thomas' School, which is part of the cluster of the three Primary Schools in the Deanery. Mrs Kathryn Sexton is the Executive Head, while Ms Geraldine Leahy is the Academy Principal. The school is part of Kent Catholic Schools Partnership (KCSP), the Multi Academy Trust (MAT) which runs the Catholic schools in Kent.

There are close links between school and parish as you would expect: the children regularly attend Church for whole school and class Masses, the priests go into the school, and many parishioners are governors or help in other ways. Catherine Ingram is the Chair of the Academy Governance Committee.

The Catholic Secondary School for the Deanery is St Gregory's in Tunbridge Wells. We also maintain good links with Trinity School, the inter-denominational school in Sevenoaks.

Then the form asks about Promoting Vocations: 'is there a Parish Vocations Team?' The answer is no. Should we have one? Who would volunteer to be a member of such a Team?

The eleventh section is about Ecumenism. The parish is a member of Churches Together in Sevenoaks and District. However, its activities stopped during the pandemic, and the Clergy Forum has ceased to exist. I have to say that Sevenoaks is the least ecumenical place in which I have ever served, partly because the communities in other denominations are - to put it diplomatically - somewhat divided amongst themselves, and do not appear to be at all interested in ecumenism. Quite what to do about it I don't know; a large dollop of the Holy Spirit will be needed to get things going again!

Section 13 (which is confusingly the 12th section, as Section 1 is an introduction) is about Lay Apostolate. Here we have a long list of lay people engaged in various apostolates. We employ (part-time) three people: Magda Wiacek as the Parish Secretary, Mariola Czaja as the Presbytery Housekeeper and cleaner at the Parish Centre and Most Holy Trinity, and Stephanie Cotterill, our Accountant and bookkeeper.

We also have many groups in the Parish, all run by volunteers: these include Bereavement Support, the Catenians, Lectio Divina, Mothers Prayers, Baby & Toddlers, Retreats, the Pilgrims (older parishioners), Scripture Fellowship, SVP, UCM. Please let me know if I have absent-mindedly missed any group out of this list.

In addition, we have volunteers for collection counting, ICT maintenance, church cleaners, gardening, building maintenance, flower arranging, altar linen laundry, social events, and Sacristans in each church. Christine Landon is in charge of the Repository, as well as being the Authorised Person (that is, the civil registrar for Weddings).

Add in the catechists, musicians, Ministers of Holy Communion, readers, COVID stewards etc etc, and we have an impressive number of parishioners involved in so many ways in what is by any standards a vibrant parish.

SEVENOAKS WELCOMES REFUGEES

Sevenoaks Welcomes Refugees is helping to deliver the UK Government's global Resettlement Scheme, the Afghan Relocations and Assistance Policy (ARAP) and the Afghan citizens' resettlement scheme, working in close partnership with Sevenoaks District Council and Kent County Council. There are vulnerable refugee families waiting to travel to the UK just as soon as there is a property available here for them. We would therefore like to secure more properties as a matter of urgency and are seeking the support of local landlords.

Our work

Thanks to the generosity of local landlords and other supporters, we are already helping to resettle six refugee families in our District. We provide local practical support to refugee families in our area - welcoming, help with learning English, finding jobs, sourcing necessary household items, and making small welfare grants to help the families resettle, rebuild and recover.

With more landlords on board, we can help more families

If we can secure more properties in Sevenoaks District, this will allow other vulnerable refugee families to join the ones that are already here. An excellent package is on offer for any private landlord able to help. We make the whole landlord sign-up process very simple and you will have the security of knowing that monthly rental payments will be both reliable and secure. Rental payments are made directly by Sevenoaks District Council (SDC).

What types of property do we need?

1-4 bedrooms, self-contained, available for at least 24 months, furnished or unfurnished, close to public transport links

How much rent will I receive?

Monthly rental payable under the scheme is based on UK Local Housing Allowance (LHA) rates. For example, the rate for a 3-bedroom house in Sevenoaks is £1,130 pcm and for a 3-bedroom house in Swanley it's £1,050 pcm. In addition, the following incentive payments are paid to the landlord annually in advance: £1,500 for a 3-bed and above, £1,000 for a 1 or 2-bed and £500 for a studio/bedsit. Thanks to the generosity of our supporters and donors, SWR may also consider making incentive payments to landlords in addition to the amounts mentioned above.

How do the tenancy agreements work?

The terms are similar to a normal private tenancy agreement:

The tenancy agreement is between the landlord and the family.

Minimum period of two years.

A cash deposit of up to 6 weeks rent is provided (along with one month's rent in advance).

The cash deposit is registered with one of the approved protection schemes.

Rent is paid monthly in advance at the beginning of each month.

Rent is paid by SDC directly to the landlord or to his/her agent managing the property.

Rent is paid to the landlord from the time the property is approved for use by SDC, thereby avoiding any 'void' period.

Who will live in my property?

Your property will be tenanted by a Syrian or Afghan refugee family. The families who come here will all have been identified as vulnerable by the United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR) and will have been screened by both the UNHCR and staff from the Home Office. From the moment the families arrive in the UK and travel to Kent they are closely supported by the relevant UK Government agencies, Sevenoaks District Council and our charity Sevenoaks Welcomes Refugees.

How do I join the scheme?

Please visit our website www.sevenoakswelcomesrefugees.org for further information and our contact details. If you have a property that meets the requirements set out above, and would like to help a vulnerable refugee family start a new life in Sevenoaks District, we would love to hear from you. We can also put you in touch with our existing landlords for a confidential discussion about their experiences with the scheme.

May they rest in peace.*

Latin Antiphons

Entrance: Dicit Dominus: Ego cogito cogitationes pacis, et non afflictionis; invocabitis me, et ego exaudiam vos, et reducam captivitatem vestram de cunctis locis.

Communion: Amen dico vobis, quidquid orantes petitis, credite quia accipietis, et fiet vobis, dicit Dominus.
