JACK'S FIRST HOLY COMMUNION
ON SUNDAY 14TH NOVEMBER

Today's Mass: EIGHTH SUNDAY of the YEAR (Year C)

Sirach 27: 5-8; Psalm 91; 1 Corinthians 15: 54-58; Luke 6: 39-45

First Reading: this Proverbs like text from Sirach speaks of the words of a person as a reflection of that person's character and refers to the fruit of a tree, and doubtless the compilers of the Lectionary selected this to parallel and reinforce our Lord's words in today's Gospel.

Psalm: as ever our response to blessings from God should be thanksgiving. Again there is the reference to fruit: the righteous will be like an ancient tree still bearing fruit.

Second Reading: St Paul here imagines death as like a scorpion, with its deadly sting, and the sting which leads to death is sin. Our sin causes our (eternal) death. Fortunately Jesus Christ has remedied this fatal situation.

Gospel: the Pharisees and other religious teachers of our Lord's day were trying to fine tune the law, with lots of rules and regulations, trying to make Israel holier and holier as a way of separating their nation from other nations. But in doing this they were missing the point: Israel should be a light to the nations.

Jesus' words about fruits and trees indicate that He is inviting us in today's Gospel to a completely new way of life, a change which will require a change of heart, a realignment of our fundamental attitude to others.

GOSPEL TODAY

What fills our hearts?

Jesus said if our hearts are full of goodness, we will say and do good things.

Jesus tells us to look at ourselves before we try to point out other people's faults. We can't see a splinter in someone else's eye if we have a plank of wood in our own eye!

Look carefully

Can you find the tiny speck in this eye?
We need to look very carefully if we are going to see clearly.

Look very carefully and copy the eye into the grid.

bad people do bad things.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Thank you, Jesus, for filling my heart with love. Help me to share your love and goodness
by treating the people I meet with kindness, especially if they annoy me. Help me to follow your example. Amen.

PARISH NOTICES

TODAY

Day for the Unemployed

In the Bishops' Cycle of Prayer today is a day when we are asked to pray for the Unemployed, and to give thought to the subject. Catholic social teaching tells us we cannot be indifferent to unemployment or condone the use of unemployment as an economic tool.

Clergy Support Fund Second Collection

The Archbishop has written to ask you to support with great generosity this important Collection. In 2021 this Fund provided care to 71 retired priests, after a lifetime of dedicated service to the people of God, at a cost of £1.25 million.

SVP Refugee Clothes Appeal

Please place the items requested last week in the baskets provided by the SVP. They will then sort the items and donate them to Care4Calais who will take them to northern France. Contact Frances Smith (07854 814328 or sevenoakssvp@gmail.com) if you can help in this process.

Supply priests

Assisting us again this Sunday are Fr Bryan Wells and Fr James Boner, OFM Cap.

11:15am Mass

The Music Group lead our music today.

First Holy Communion Mass 3:00pm

Today there is an extra Mass for children on this year's First Holy Communion programme and their families. If your child is on this year's course please make every effort to attend this Mass.

THIS WEEK

Shrove Tuesday

The Pilgrims invite you to coffee, pancakes and conversation in the Parish Room after the 9:30am Mass on Tuesday.

Bart McGirr RIP

Bart's body will be received into St Bernadette's on Wednesday at 4:00pm. His Funeral Mass will be at 10:00am on Thursday, followed by Committal at Eltham Crematorium.

World Day of Prayer 2022

'I know the plans I have for you'. This year the ecumenical service has been written by Christian women of England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

The Sevenoaks area service will be held at St Mary's Church of England Church Kippington, on Friday at 2:00pm. All are welcome to the service and light refreshments afterwards. Also at 11:00am at St George's Church of England Church at Wrotham.

2021 Confirmation - Pizza & Questions Evening Attention all the young people who were Confirmed in November 2021!

We are hosting a Question-and-Answer session on Saturday in the Parish Room from 7:00pm - 9:00pm, immediately after the 6:00pm Mass, for the newly Confirmed only.

The evening will begin with pizza and an opportunity for you all to come together again. Fr Peter will then answer the questions from the question box that we did not have the opportunity to address during the programme.

Please register for the evening by emailing Gabrielle Ellis by Wednesday at sevenoaksconfirmation@rcaos.org.uk, stating any dietary requirements.

LENT

Lent is the season of preparation for Easter. The candidates and catechumens on our RCIA programme prepare for their Reception or Baptism into the Church at the Easter Vigil. The rest of us prepare, by prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, for the great Solemnity of our Lord's Resurrection.

Ash Wednesday (2nd)

The first day of Lent is a day of fasting (going without food) and abstinence (not having alcohol or other luxuries). Holy Mass with the imposition of ashes:

St Thomas's, Sevenoaks: 8:00am (Latin), 9:30am (attended by Key Stage 2 from St Thomas' School), 12:00 noon and 8:00pm

Most Holy Trinity, Otford: 10:00am

St Bernadette's, West Kingsdown: 11:00am

St Joseph's, Borough Green: 6:00pm.

In addition there will be an age-appropriate Liturgy with ashing in St Thomas's School in the afternoon for the children in early years.

Stations of the Cross

At St Thomas's on Fridays at 8:00pm, starting on Friday 4th March. At Most Holy Trinity, Otford on Thursdays at 7:30pm, instead of the usual Holy Hour, starting on 3rd March. For those wishing to participate in the Stations of the Cross online, the four recordings from last year (one for each church) will be available via the link on the Parish website.

Adoration & Benediction on Sundays, 5:00pm in St Thomas's

Starting on the First Sunday of Lent there will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at 5:00pm every Sunday in Lent in St Thomas's, concluding with Benediction at 5:30pm. Why not make this your extra Lenten prayer?

Lent Course:

A Practical Introduction to Intimate Prayer

Fr Peter will be offering a Lent course on Thursday evenings at 8:00pm for the first six weeks of Lent. Each session will consist of a 20 minute talk about the life of prayer, followed by a 20 minute time of silence, in which participants are invited to pray using a different method each week. The evenings will conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and - for those who wish - refreshments and the chance to ask questions or discuss further.

3rd March – Basics of an authentic life of prayer

10th March – Problems in prayer

17th March – Hearing God

24th March – Prayer & our conversion

31st March – Prayer & our salvation

7th April - The Examination of Conscience

It is hoped that the course will offer those who struggle with prayer a 'way in' to this important aspect of the spiritual life. For those who may already be regular and familiar with their life of prayer it will, hopefully, offer the chance to experience some new ways of praying, which can be important, at times, to help refresh and renew way in which we spend time with the Lord.

Confessions

Every Saturday in St Thomas's, 10:00am - 11:00am and 5:15pm - 5:45pm. For COVID safety we are using the side Chapel rather than the Reconciliation Chapel at the moment.

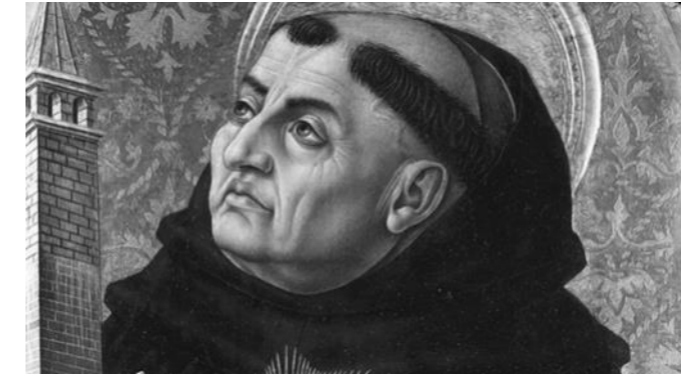

Confessions can also be heard after any Mass (at both St Thomas's and at the outstations). Don't be shy about asking one of the visiting priests to hear your Confession. Remember: Confession is not an optional extra for the pious; it is required for all Catholics at least once a year.

From the Desk of the Parish Priest

St Thomas Aquinas on Prayer, Fasting & Almsgiving

To help us to formulate our Lenten discipline of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving I have been looking at what the 'Doctor Angelicus' St Thomas Aquinas has to say about them.

Prayer

St Thomas wrote more about prayer than anything, and is known as the 'theologian of prayer'. Prayer he says is the petitioning of honest things from God. Prayer is not complicated but rather very simple: it is the prayer of a mother who lights a candle for her child's well-being, it is the prayer of a hermit praying for the salvation of the world, it is the prayer of a drug addict pleading to get out of the vicious cycle in which he is trapped.

What does prayer do? We must avoid two extremes: that prayer has no effect whatsoever or that prayer can in some way change the eternal dispositions of God. Against the first many passages of Scripture (eg Luke 18) speak of the efficacy of prayer. Against the second error we must remember that God is immutable (Malachi 3:6).

Prayer is part of man's participation in God's governance of the universe; our prayer is not intended to change God's will but "to implore what God has disposed to accomplish through prayer". It is rather like a father who does not need his small son's help in a project nevertheless out of love getting him to join in. And prayer brings us many benefits: it reminds us that we need God's help and teaches us humility, and it enables us to glorify God, the source of all goodness and mercy.

Prayer is one of the pillars of Lent, but truly it is a necessary pillar of the entire Christian life. If prayer isn't an integral part of your life, now is the time to start!

Fasting

St Thomas in his Summa Theologica reminds us about virtuous acts and then gives three important reasons for fasting: "an act is virtuous through being directed by reason to some virtuous good. Now this is consistent with fasting, because fasting is practised for a threefold purpose".

The first reason is to conquer lust. "Fasting is the guardian of chastity" he says. Lust is cooled by abstinence in meat and drink. That is to say, denying ourselves food and drink helps us to control our other appetites and passions. Practising self-denial in one area helps us to practice temperance in other areas.

Secondly, fasting helps our minds rise above material things and contemplate heavenly realities. He quotes Daniel 10, in which we read that Daniel received a revelation from God after fasting for three weeks. When we are not distracted by a preoccupation with food and drink, or lulled into inertia after a good meal, we can more readily focus our attention on God.

The third reason is to atone for our sins. There are, says St Thomas, few better ways to offer repentance for our sins than by fasting. We need good, healthy food and it is a blessing. But at times (especially in Lent and on Fridays, the day of our Lord's death) it is good to fast and offer the discomfort and pangs of hunger to God, in reparation for our sins.

Almsgiving

Almsgiving is necessary for salvation. Love of neighbour, says St Thomas, is a matter of precept (that is, a commandment of God). And love of neighbour means not just wishing one's neighbour well, but being also his well-doer. To love one's neighbour we must succour his needs. We will be judged on our almsgiving. To refuse help to the needy neighbour is to refuse Christ.

He makes the sensible point that the recipient should be in real and serious need, else there would be no reason to give him alms. And we can't relieve the needs of all, only those we can help. If you ask 'how much should I give' it sounds as if you are trying to squeak by with the bare minimum; it is not a question of the amount but of one's interior motive and generosity. Almsgiving must not hope for anything in return, and alms can be in forms other than money. The more you try sacrificial giving the deeper the joy you will receive. Aquinas considered almsgiving the general and principal work of mercy.

WHAT I DO IN MY DISCIPLESHIP IN CHRIST

The first in an occasional series by parishioners about their particular ministry or service of Christ and His Church is by Catherine Rodger. In the parish Catherine organises the annual Women's and Men's Retreats. If you would like to write an article for the Newsletter about your ministry please email it to Magda.

I have spoken with Fr David about the vivid ecumenical work I have seen as a parishioner in Sevenoaks and in my work over the last 14 years as a Family Therapist at Sevenoaks Counselling. He has asked me to share some of this with you.

16 years ago I met a child counsellor at a Lent ecumenical group who told me about what was then known as Sevenoaks Christian Counselling Service. The service had an inspirational beginning as it was set up in response to perceived need for affordable open ended counselling in the area by the Christian community. It serves anyone who lives in the local area and has grown from being one counsellor to a team of people who offer a range of counselling and therapeutic services to the local community. Most generously the United Reform Church (Christchurch) gives us our accommodation for free.

I work there one day a week; other counsellors do the same or sometimes 2 days a week. The counsellors and myself are self employed and are paid a fixed lower rate for each sessions which allows those who can afford it to pay more and those who cannot to pay less. The counsellors have a range of different religious backgrounds and spiritualities. It is a privilege to work there. We have some impressive volunteers who work as administrators on a rota and a separate team of trustees who offer support and wisdom to our Head of Service. Most of the Christian churches in Sevenoaks contribute to the upkeep of the service, often by having a collection or special event for us. There is no evangelical mission involved in our work at Sevenoaks Counselling other than one of service.

I have witnessed the excellent work provided by the Befrienders group which visits individuals who have said that they would value this contact. People are given training and supervision when they take on this commitment. Again this is held ecumenically across the Christian churches.

A more recent offshoot from this is Sevenoaks For Families which has been operating for the last few years offering a similar service to families on a regular basis. I offer supervision to this impressive group of volunteers who come from different Christian churches. The food bank is another initiative which is supported by volunteers from all the Christian churches as well as from other committed members of the community. While our own SVP offers support on an ecumenical basis to the whole community. I feel I have only scratched the surface.

I am very thankful to be part of some of this and thank you to all the people who quietly get on with doing their bit whom I have failed to mention. I know there are many.

Catherine Rodger
