10th April 2022

Today's Mass: PALM SUNDAY of the PASSION of the LORD (Year C)

Luke 19: 28-30; Isaiah 50: 4-7; Psalm 21; Philippians 2: 6-11; Luke 22: 14 - 23: 56

Gospel: Jesus enters Jerusalem as the Messiah (this is the significance of the details such as the donkey and the colt). But He is not universally welcome; the Pharisees complain, and Jerusalem is the city which kills the prophets (see Luke 13:34).

First Reading: this prophecy of the suffering servant, innocent but not retaliating, would be fulfilled by Christ, as we shall hear in the Passion Reading.

Psalm: although the suffering servant feels abandoned he ends up praising God. Similarly, Christ's passion ended in His triumph; His suffering is the way to His glorification.

Second Reading: Christ humbly accepted death on a cross, but precisely because of that God raised Him high so that everyone would acknowledge Him as Lord.

Passion: Luke's account of Christ's Passion. At the words 'he breathed his last' all kneel and pause a moment. Please join in the crowd parts.

GOD LOVES HIS CHILDREN

MASS ACTIVITY FOR CHILDREN

Holy Week

Match the picture to the correct day.

Tuesday
The leaders want to kill Jesus

Wednesday
Judas betrays Jesus

Thursday
Jesus gives himself to us in bread and wine

Friday
Jesus dies for us

Saturday
everyone waits with Mary

The crowds cheer as Jesus arrives in Jerusalem. The Messiah has arrived! Our saviour has come! By the end of the week everything looks so different. Jesus has been arrested, tried and put to death. But this moment is what his mission has been building towards. Jesus chooses to die so that we know just how much we are loved!

Help Jesus

Jesus is travelling through the streets of Jerusalem to find his friends. Can you help him find his way?

Be with Jesus at the Last Supper

Here I am joining Jesus and some of my friends around the table at the Last Supper. Draw your friends at the table. Don't forget to colour them in too!

A PRAYER TO SAY

Thank you, Jesus, for showing me what real love means. I am cheering "Hosanna" to welcome you today! Help me to stay with you when it is not so much fun. Amen.

Code work

Jesus goes to the Mount of Olives to pray to his Father. Can you decode the letters to find out what he is saying to his Father?

Answers: I love you and will do as you say

NOTICES

Confirmation 2022

Attention all those currently in Year 7 or above: registration for this year's Confirmation programme is now open. Please register online at sevrparish.org.uk. An outline of important dates is available there. Closing date: Friday 6th May 2022.

Altar Servers 44th Annual Rally

Monday 2nd May at The Friars, Aylesford; Principal Celebrant the Archbishop. Medals for membership of the Guild of St Stephen will be awarded at the Mass. Arrive for 10:15am to obtain the medals and certificates, or for existing members of the Guild assemble at 11:00am.

Advance Notice: Parish Garden Party

The Garden Party is back and will be on Sunday 3rd July, in the Presbytery garden, from 12:30pm. Save the date now! Free food and drink as usual. If you can run a stall, children's games, make food, generally help etc please contact Ben Andradi: Ben.Andradi@gmail.com.

The Passage (the Catholic charity working with homeless people)

Income is below the level of previous years, presumably because of 'competition' for the needs of Ukraine, but we still need to provide for the homeless in London. There is still £100,000 available of allocated matched funding for donations made by Tuesday 19th April. Please visit <https://bit.ly/BigGiveMarch22> to support their Big Give campaign. Every £1 donated online makes £2 and £2.25 if you Gift Aid it.

Kent Catholic Schools Partnership

We need you: can you help us improve the educational experience for our children, by becoming a Governor and supporting and challenging our school leaders? KCSP is looking for members who could commit to approx. 4 meetings a year + monitoring visits to a school. If you would like to help shape the Catholic Education provided to our young people, then please email governance@kcsp.org.uk. Induction and training is provided, no previous educational governance experience is required.

Ukraine donations

On Monday we sent a whole van of donations to the Lewisham Polish Centre, from where a lorry went to Ukraine. As one of the drivers said, "with these donations one hospital will be well equipped". We collected approximately 2000 tins, 50kg of sweets, 100kg of dry food, 2 large boxes of medicines, 2 large boxes of female hygiene items, 2 large boxes of baby items, 6 large boxes of warm clothing, 3 large boxes of sleeping bags and blankets, 2 boxes of electrical items and candles, and 2 large boxes of kitchen items. £452 was raised on the JustGiving page which was donated to UNICEF Poland.

Money and items can still be made to the Lewisham Polish Centre. Thank you for your support and donations.

PARISH AND OTHER NOTICES

From the Desk of the Parish Priest

The Gospels of the Sundays in Lent: Palm Sunday

Today the Gospel is read at the beginning of Mass, at the Blessing of Palms. This is adapted from a reflection originally composed for the Order of Knights of The Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem.

*Blessed City, Heavenly Salem,
Vision dear of Peace and Love,
Who, of living stones upbuilted,
Art the joy of Heav'n above,
And, with angel cohorts circled,
As a bride to earth dost move!*

Urbs Beata Jerusalem (office hymn for the Dedication of a Church)

Today we recall Jesus Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Not counting the three kings who went to Jerusalem before going on to Bethlehem on their pilgrimage to the infant Jesus (Matthew 2:1), the first pilgrim to Jerusalem of whom we have an account is the (name unknown) 'Bordeaux pilgrim' in 333, who seems to have found most of the churches in the holy places under construction.

Most notably, some 50 years later Egeria made a pilgrimage, and seems to have found the inchoate Liturgy of the Church under construction, especially the Holy Week Liturgies. She describes a procession on Palm Sunday from the Mount of Olives back down into Jerusalem, beginning at 5 o'clock in the afternoon:

"all carry branches, some from palm and some from olive trees. In this way the bishop is led down in exactly the same way as happened with the Lord. Everyone is on foot, even the older men and women. They escort the bishop, singing the responses and walking slowly so as not to tire those in the procession. As a consequence it is evening by the time they reach the church, yet they still have the Service of Lights, then the prayer at the Cross, before the dismissal".

Since then countless pilgrims over the centuries have entered Jerusalem, in the footsteps of the Lord. And not only pilgrims: Jerusalem has been entered by conquerors on at least 36 occasions. Most famously Field Marshall Viscount Allenby, having vanquished the Ottoman Turks in the First World War, entered Jerusalem humbly (and wisely) on foot, through the Jaffa Gate, in 1917.

We cannot all go on pilgrimage to Jerusalem this Sunday. So on Palm Sunday we have our Processions into our Churches, much as happened in Jerusalem in Egeria's day. But, it is worth remembering that every time we attend Holy Mass we are - liturgically - entering Jerusalem as a pilgrim. This is perhaps seen clearly in mediaeval English churches with their elaborate rood screens, through which the priest and his assistants pass to enter the Sanctuary, which represents Jerusalem - the place where Christ's sacrifice was and is offered - and which is a but a copy of the real sanctuary in heaven (see Hebrews 9).

Every church building is intended to be a sacramental building, both a reminder of the Temple in Jerusalem with its Holy of Holies and an image of the heavenly Jerusalem to which we journey as pilgrims. The church building is meant to be an image of the heavenly Jerusalem described in Apocalypse 21. In England & Wales, the queue for Holy Communion is (somewhat stereotypically, one might think) the form of reverence prescribed by our bishops, but the Communion Procession is not simply a way to get forward for Holy Communion: it is symbolic of each Christian's pilgrimage, 'from sin and self to union with God' as Cardinal Hume once put it.

That Holy Mass is a sacramental participation in the liturgy in the heavenly Jerusalem is at the heart of the Second Vatican Council's teaching on liturgy: in our earthly churches "we sing a hymn to the Lord's glory with all the warriors of the heavenly army" (Sacrosanctum Concilium §8).

GIFT AID

Thank you

I'd like to say a very big thank you for your support this year. In these unusual times, your support has been critical to keeping the parish financially afloat.

You have protected the Parish

One of the things that continues to help our financial position is that a clear majority of the parishioners who Gift Aid now do so by standing order. A big thank you to all of you who have moved to doing a Standing Order. I'm keen to continue this trend for two reasons: firstly it has protected us financially during the pandemic. Secondly (more selfishly) it simplifies the back-office administration.

For parishioners who use the weekly envelopes.

I'm continuing to consolidate the Weekly Envelope numbers. If the number on your box was above 50 you will be receiving a new number. By consolidating the numbers, we cut down on the number of boxes that we have to order from the printer. It reduces the cost to us and we don't throw away surplus boxes unnecessarily. Your boxes of weekly envelopes are now ready to be collected at the back of church. Please take your box home.

For parishioners who have standing orders

A small bundle of second collection and special collection envelopes are now ready to be collected at the back of church. Each bundle is in an envelope with your name on. Please find your envelope and take it home. As technology moves on, some of you are now finding it more convenient to do additional bank payments for second collections or are using the machine at the back of St Thomas's. Even so please take your envelopes home so that we do not miss any Gift Aid from your generosity at the second collections.

Mea Culpa in advance

With four 'Mass centres' in the parish, I try to make sure that the correct box or bundle goes to the right place. It's more of an art than a science. I have a long list which I keep and update each year where I have made a mistake in the past. So, if I get it wrong, please let me know and email me at sevenoaksgac@rcaos.org.uk or ring me on 07771945321. I'll sort it out and get your envelopes to you.

How significant is the tax relief to the parish?

Everyone's contribution whether small or large is important. In the 2020/21 tax year we were able to claim back from the tax authorities over £35,000. It is a big part of our income and allows us to fund our four Mass centres and contribute to the diocese.

Please consider joining the Gift Aid scheme.

If you don't currently Gift Aid and are a taxpayer, the parish as a charity is able to reclaim the basic tax you have already paid on anything you give to the Parish. We can then claim on all gifts like Mass offerings or even the First Communion Programme. If you think that's a good idea, please just do it. Take a moment to complete the Gift Aid Form; you only need to do it once. You can put the completed forms in an envelope in the offertory collection or through the Presbytery door. Alternatively, you can scan and sign the form and send it me at sevenoaksgac@rcaos.org.uk. If you'd like to have the forms electronically or you have a query you can contact me at sevenoaksgac@rcaos.org.uk or ring me on 07771 945321.
