Today's Mass: EASTER SUNDAY of the RESURRECTION of the LORD

The Mass of Easter Night

After the seven Old Testament Readings (which may be reduced in number), the Epistle is from St Paul's Letter to the Romans, in which he summarises not only the significance of Christ's resurrection for Christ Himself but also its significance for those of us Baptized in Him.

After a Psalms of thanksgiving, the Gospel is Luke's account of the empty tomb, first discovered by the two Marys.

Mass of the Day

First Reading: St Peter tells Cornelius and his household how he and the other apostles are witnesses to Christ's resurrection.

Psalms: a psalm of rejoicing and gladness.

The Second Reading is either from St Paul's Letter to the Colossians (let your thoughts be on heavenly not earthly things) or his First Letter to the Corinthians (celebrate the feast by getting rid of the old yeast of evil and wickedness).

The Sequence follows, sung if possible (you may find it in hymn books under its Latin title Victimae Paschali Laudes).

Gospel: John's account of the empty tomb, discovered by Mary of Magdala, who tells Peter and the beloved disciple (thought to be John).

Fr David

GOD LOVES HIS CHILDREN MASS ACTIVITY FOR CHILDREN

Light the Paschal Candle

Colour the candle to look like the one you see in church.

Mary Magdalene comes to the tomb and sees the stone has been rolled away. She rushes to tell the other disciples, who run to see what she is talking about. Mary is right – the tomb is empty. Going inside, the disciples see the grave cloths on the floor. Now they understand – Jesus is alive! He is risen!

Alleluia!

Help Mary Magdalene, Peter and John get to the empty tomb.

Easter Eggs

Some children roll their Easter eggs, to remind them of the stone that was rolled away from the tomb. How many Easter eggs are rolling around this page?

A PRAYER TO SAY

Thank you, Jesus, for rising from the dead and bringing life and hope into the world! Now I know that good can come even from the worst things that happen. Amen.

Which stone fits?

Put a circle around the stone that fits the entrance to the tomb.

Answers: 11 eggs

An Easter Reflection

This reflection is adapted from a reflection written for the KCSP Easter Newsletter.

A few years ago I accompanied Fr Paul Okora to his British citizenship ceremony in the Archbishop's Palace in Maidstone. The ceremony was quite brief, and it was followed - somewhat stereotypically one might think - by a cup of tea and a piece of cake. Each new citizen was also given a pot of Kentish honey.

In the early church new Christians, after their Baptism at Easter, were given a meal of milk and honey, signifying that they were now citizens of a new country or, in St Augustine's phrase were now part of the City of God. The Biblical origin of this is, of course, the Israelites - the People of God - entering the promised land, the land flowing with milk and honey, after their forty years' pilgrimage through the wilderness (see Exodus 3:8).

After our forty days in the wilderness - in the season of Lent - we enter into the joyous fifty day season of Easter, the season of celebration of our Lord's Resurrection. This year we might feel there is little to celebrate, what with two years of COVID-19 pandemic with all its concomitant restrictions and difficulties and seeming reluctance for the coronavirus to go away, the invasion of Ukraine, increasingly aggressive secularisation which is opposed to Catholic education, the increasing cost of living crisis we hear so much about, along with the inevitable family, financial and health problems we will have in our own families and places of work.

But we must not give way to despair and depression, because by virtue of our Baptism we are citizens of the City of God, we are incorporated into Christ ('Christened') and are members of the new People of God. And most significantly of all, we know that by His death and Resurrection Jesus Christ has once and for all conquered sin and death. We know that evil and wickedness will never win.

As St Paul puts it in Romans 8:12: "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us". See also Hebrews chapter 10.

So we are confident that in the words of Mother Julian of Norwich 'all shall be well'. This does not mean that we go around with a goofy grin all the time, blithely ignoring the difficulties and problems. We do have to engage with the various issues around at the moment. But it does mean that we have a serene, unshakable certainty that Christ has defeated sin and death and that where He has gone we shall follow. His destiny is our destiny, if we remain faithful to Christ. With this Christian hope of eternal life we can face up to, and face down, all the current problems.

Milk and honey might be a bit sickly. I suspect most of us will eat chocolate Easter eggs this Easter. As we do so, let us remember that on the one hand we are citizens of this world, submitting to its laws and regulations as long as they do not conflict with the commands of God. But on the other hand, and more importantly, we are citizens of the kingdom of God, which we can only enter by being born again (that is by Baptism; see John 3:3) and this will enable us to celebrate Christ's Resurrection with untrammelled joy.

Let me end with a quote from St Augustine's City of God:

"This joy in God is not like any pleasure found in physical or intellectual satisfaction. Nor is it such as a friend experiences in the presence of a friend. But, if we are to use any such analogy, it is more like the eye rejoicing in light."
