Today's Mass: CORPUS et SANGUIS CHRISTI

Genesis 14: 18-20; Psalm 109; 1 Corinthians 11: 23-26; Luke 9: 11-17

First Reading: Melchizedek, referred to here as “a priest of God most High”, brings bread and wine, a prefiguring of the Eucharist. Melchizedek is mentioned in Eucharistic Prayer I and in today’s Responsorial Psalm.

Psalm: as Son Christ shares in God’s supreme dominion, but He exercises His power in priesthood.

Second Reading: the institution narrative in every Eucharistic Prayer is based on the Gospels but also on this passage which, written some twenty years after Jesus died, is the earliest testimony to the tradition. The first memorial acclamation is taken from this passage.

Gospel: the feeding of the Five Thousand. Moses had fed the Israelites in the desert (Exodus 16) and Elisha had fed the people with more than enough (2 Kings 4). Jesus also feeds the people but His miracle exceeds the prophets’ miracles.

Like all the Gospels Luke clearly presents this miracle as having eucharistic overtones, as we can discern from the verbs he uses to describe Jesus’ actions: as at the Last Supper (and as every priest does at every Mass) He takes the bread, blesses it, breaks it, and gives it.

Fr David

GOD LOVES HIS CHILDREN MASS ACTIVITY FOR CHILDREN

Feeding everyone

Jesus asked his friends to feed the hungry people.

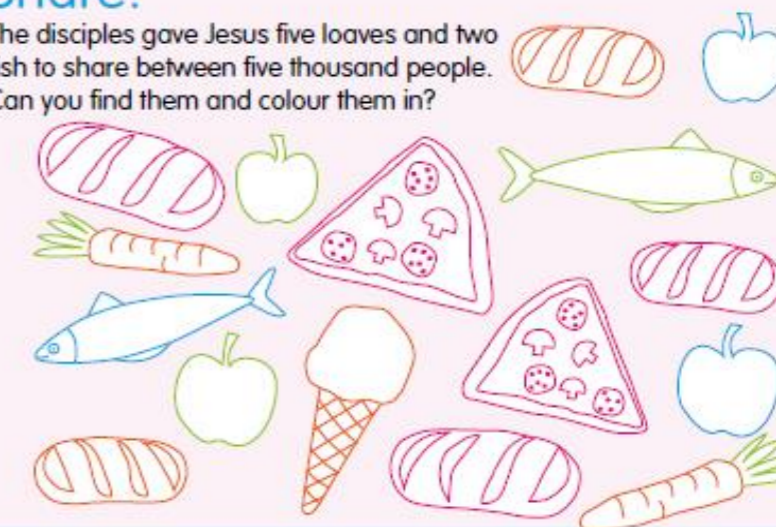

Can you help Jesus' friends find the right path to feed the crowd?

The huge crowd is hungry. The people have been listening to Jesus and now it is late. The apostles only have five loaves and two fish. It is not enough. Jesus asks them to sit people down. He blesses the food and asks his friends to share it out. Everyone eats all they want – and there are twelve baskets of scraps left over!

Share!

The disciples gave Jesus five loaves and two fish to share between five thousand people. Can you find them and colour them in?

My best meal

Can you draw a picture of your favourite food?

Who would you like to share this food with?

(name/s)

A PRAYER TO SAY

Dear Jesus, you fed the people who were hungry. Help me to share with people who are in need. I may not be able to feed 5,000 people, but I can make a difference if I try to be like you. Amen.

Sharing

When I share...

I make others h ____ (yppa).

I feel k ____ (dni) inside.

I am d ____ (gnio) what Jesus did.

PARISH NOTICES

TODAY

Corpus Christi Processions

At the 9:15am and 11:15am Masses at St Thomas's and at the Masses at the three Chapels, the Procession of the Blessed Sacrament follows Mass, ending with Benediction. After the post Communion Prayer, the Procession will go out in this order:

- Altar Servers
- recent first Communicants, throwing rose petals on the ground
- the Priest carrying the Blessed Sacrament
- the congregation.

At St Thomas's use the Procession leaflets; at Otford, Borough Green and West Kingsdown see page 8 of this Newsletter.

Day for Life and Second Collection

Today is the annual Day for Life. This year our focus is on caring for and valuing the elderly. Go to <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/df122/> for Pope Francis' Day for Life Message, our Bishops' Message, and prayers for the elderly.

The second collection provides core funding for the Anscombe Bioethics Centre and to assist other life related Catholic charities.

First Holy Communion

Welcome to Nadia Sainz Gonzalez, receiving her first Holy Communion at the 9:15am Mass today (a most appropriate day for a first Holy Communion if ever there was one!).

THIS WEEK

Fr David

will be away this week, on his first holiday since the pandemic started. He returns on Monday 27th June.

Feasts this week

There are a number of big Feasts in this week's Calendar. Monday is the memorial of S Alban, the first martyr of Britain. Wednesday is the Feast of SS John Fisher, Bishop and Thomas More, Martyrs. It is also the anniversary of the ancient hierarchy founded by Pope S Gregory the Great in 597.

Moved a day earlier than its normal day because of Friday's Solemnity, Thursday is the Solemnity of the Nativity of S John the Baptist. Friday is the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, which speaks to us of the self sacrificing and unconditional love of our Blessed Lord; the Readings are from Year C. Saturday is the memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary; this is observed on the Saturday after the Second Sunday after Pentecost.

Listening to You Group

In the Parish Centre from 10:30am on Monday. If you have been bereaved – recently or a while ago – or who have lost a job or something else important, just come along for a sympathetic chat.

St Thomas' School

Year 3 attend Holy Mass on Tuesday. As always, parents and family members are especially invited to join in this Mass.

'(Re) Connecting with Faith'

The second of Fr Peter's straightforward and accessible talks about the Heart of the Catholic Faith. Snacks and refreshments will be served. Wednesday. 8:00 pm in the Parish Centre

Don't worry if you weren't at last week's talk. Come anyway, and bring a friend or family member. No need to book, just turn up.

Holy Matrimony

The Wedding of Alastair Smith and Nicole Broster is on Saturday at 2:00pm in St Thomas's.

NOTICES

PARISH AND OTHER NOTICES

Parish Garden Party – 3rd July

12:00 noon – 4:00pm in the Presbytery garden. This is an inclusive event for young and old, families, teenagers, retired and parishioners from all four churches. No charge for entry, food or drink. There will be a variety of food, including BBQ, children's games, entertainment and live music, bottle and toy stalls, Parish raffle with prizes, and a bar. Most parish groups will be taking part. All funds raised are for the Parish.

The Bottle Stall is always popular. Please look through your cupboards and bring bottles to the Presbytery (champagne but not shampoo, Sangria not sanitiser, Pimm's not Pepsi!). Likewise donate unwanted toys, teddies etc - in safe condition - and bring them to the Presbytery.

If you have ideas for the Garden Party please contact Ben Andradi at ben.andradi@gmail.com.

First Holy Communion 2023

If your child is currently in Year 2 or above, NOW is the time to register them for the next Holy Communion programme. Please register online at sevrparish.org.uk. The initial parents' meeting will be on Wednesday 6th July at 8:00pm.

Note that this is earlier than in previous years; this is to enable the first Holy Communions to take place before Corpus Christi next year.

Volunteers needed

Now that things are getting back to normal after the pandemic, we need a number of volunteers. If YOU can help, don't hesitate to offer yourself.

Collection counters: can you count and are free on a weekday morning? Please contact Fr David or Andy Hicks (andyhicks4@gmail.com) if you could do this, perhaps once a month or so. Now that many people donate by Standing Order or via the card machine, this is not as big a job as it used to be, but it still needs doing.

9:15am Mass at St Thomas's: we need a few more catechists to help with the Children's Liturgy of the Word. If you possibly can, contact Mark O'Prey (sevenoakslow@rcaos.org.uk). Training will be given, but note that a DBS check will be required. Also, can you help provide some music at this Mass, even if once a month? Contact Fr David. The Fitzgerald family have restarted tea/coffee and biscuits after this Mass. Speak to them if you can help with this from time to time.

Foodbank

With the cost of living increasing so dramatically, the number of people in need in our Parishes is also on the rise with new referrals every week. Unfortunately, our stocks are unusually low and we don't expect a large amount of donations until Harvest Festival after the summer. To face this situation, I propose monthly collections of non-perishable food and hygiene products: Otford on the first weekend of every month starting on the weekend of 2/3 July and Sevenoaks on the second weekend of each month starting on 9/10 July. Any tinned food, especially meat is always appreciated but I invited you to visit our new website to know our precise need of the week: Sevenoaksfoodbank.co.uk. Thank you.

Isabelle Mercer

Easter Offering

This totalled £13,074.30. Fr David and Fr Peter are very grateful for your generosity.

The Society of Friends of Westminster Cathedral - vacancy

A part-time Co-ordinator is required for the day to day running of the charity. Full details at <https://westminstercathedral.org.uk/the-friends-look-for-an-organising-secretary/>.

PLEASE PRAY

- ◆ for all receiving their first Holy Communion at this time, and for their catechists;
- ◆ for respect for life, especially that the elderly are cared for and valued;
- ◆ for many volunteers for collection counting and at the 9:15am Mass;
- ◆ for good weather for the Parish Garden Party.

Holy Mass

As today is the Solemnity of Our Lord's Body and Blood (Corpus et Sanguis Christi) it seems appropriate to give an overview of the Mass.

The Eucharist

The Eucharist is counted as a Sacrament of Initiation, and is the third of these; the first two are Baptism and Confirmation. The Eucharist is, in the words of the Second Vatican Council, the "source and summit of the Christian life" (Lumen Gentium §11). It is the sign and cause of our communion with God and with one another (which is why we are unable to offer Holy Communion to those who have withdrawn from Communion with the Catholic Church). It is also a uniting with the heavenly Liturgy and an anticipation of eternal life (see the Catechism of the Catholic Church §1326); in other words you had better get used to the Mass in this life, else you will struggle in heaven!

Scriptural Foundations

The Mass is firmly Scriptural. In the Old Testament there are various pre-echoes of it, including Melchizedek, the High Priest who "brought out bread and wine" (Genesis 14:18; see today's First Reading), the unleavened bread at the Passover each year (Numbers 9), and the manna from heaven (Deuteronomy 8:3). The underlying concepts of Mass, including sacrifice, thanksgiving and communion with God are all derived from the Old Testament.

In the Gospels there is the multiplication of the loaves (Matthew 14: 13-21; 15: 32-39; see today's Gospel), the first miracle at Cana (water into wine: John 2: 1-12), the Last Supper and Christ's command to "do this in memory of me", Jesus' discourse at Capernaum in John 6 ("I am the bread of life"), and the disciples recognising Jesus in the breaking of bread at Emmaus (Luke 24: 13-35).

In the New Testament see the reference in Acts 20:7 to the breaking of bread, but the earliest account of the command of Christ is in 1 Corinthians 11.

Different names

The Mass is so important that over the centuries it has been known by a number of different names. Eucharist comes from the Greek for giving thanks (to God). The Lord's Supper is a term derived from Mark 14 and 1 Corinthians 11: 17-34. The Breaking of Bread was a technical term used in the early Church (in the Emmaus story in Luke and in Acts 2:42 etc). It can be called the Assembly (Synaxis in Greek) because it is celebrated amid the assembly of the faithful (see 1 Corinthians 11: 17-34). The Divine Liturgy refers to the Church's principal service and worship.

It is called the Holy Sacrifice because it makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Saviour (Hebrews 13:15, 1 Peter 2:5). The Most Blessed Sacrament describes it as the sacrament of sacraments. The strangest word is Mass. This is the most commonly used word, but its origin is a mystery. It may come from the sending forth (ie our mission) at the end of Mass - "Ite, Missa est" - but we don't actually know that is where it comes from.

Holy Mass

The earliest witness to the Mass, as we would recognise it, is in approximately 155 AD in the Apologia 1 written by Justin Martyr. It developed over the centuries, until the Council of Trent (1545 – 1563) formally codified the words and actions, in Latin of course. Sometimes non-Catholics allege that the Catholic Church invented its understanding of the Eucharist then and thus subverted the 'purity' of the first Christians, but concepts like the Real Presence go right back to the early Church; Trent simply put it down in writing.

Vatican II (1962 – 1965) opened up the use of the people's mother tongue, and designated the two-fold structure of the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist (Sacrosanctum Concilium §56). The Council also wanted "devout and actual participation of the faithful" (Sacrosanctum Concilium §50), more use of the Bible, and greater access to communion under both kinds.

For validity, bread and wine must be used (no Ribena!), and it must be celebrated by a Sacerdos (= Bishop or Priest). Every Catholic, unless impeded by illness, lack of transport etc, has an obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holydays.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION
At St Thomas's use the Procession leaflets

After the Post Communion Prayer, KNEEL. As the Blessed Sacrament is placed on the Altar:

O Sacrament most Holy,
O Sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be every moment thine. (x3)

Those throwing the rose petals precede the Priest; others please follow. During the Procession hymns (such as Sweet Sacrament Divine, Alleluia, sing to Jesus, and Lord Jesus Christ will be sung; take a hymn book).

After the Blessed Sacrament is placed on the Altar:

Tantum ergo Sacramentum
Veneremur cernui:
Et antiquum documentum
Novo cedat ritui:
Praestet fides supplementum
Sensuum defectui.

Genitori, Genitoque
Laus et jubilatio,
Salus, honor, virtus quoque
Sit et benedictio:
Procedenti ab utroque
Compar sit laudatio. Amen.

V. Panem de caelo praestitisti eis, Alleluia.

R. Omne delectamentum in se habentem, Alleluia.

The Priest sings a Prayer.

After the Blessing with the Blessed Sacrament, repeat the Divine Praises after the Priest:

Blessed be God.
Blessed be His Holy Name.
Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man.
Blessed be the Name of Jesus.
Blessed be His Most Sacred Heart.
Blessed be His Most Precious Blood.
Blessed be Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.
Blessed be the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete.
Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most Holy.
Blessed be her Holy and Immaculate Conception.
Blessed be her Glorious Assumption.
Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother.
Blessed be St. Joseph, her most chaste spouse.
Blessed be God in His Angels and in His Saints.

As the Blessed Sacrament is reposed in the Tabernacle, a hymn such as Soul of my Saviour is sung.
