"May I give you some advice for you to put into practice daily? When your heart makes you feel those low cravings, say slowly to the Immaculate Virgin: Look on me with compassion. Don't abandon me. Don't abandon me, my Mother! - And recommend this prayer to others."

Parish Newsletter

21st May 2023

Today's Mass: SEVENTH SUNDAY of EASTER

Acts of the Apostles 1: 12-15, Psalm 26, 1 Peter 4: 13-16, John 17: 1-11

First Reading: the apostles - now 11 after Judas' defection - along with several women - including Mary, Christ's mother - and Jesus' brothers prayed together continuously. This is the first recorded Novena of prayer: their nine days of prayer between the Ascension and Pentecost is the basis of all later Novenas.

Psalm: a prayer of confident and urgent trust in God.

Second Reading: the context makes it clear that the sufferings mentioned here are those resulting from persecution of Christians, either by the Jewish authorities or the pagan, Roman authorities. If Christians suffer because of their faith in Christ, they are blessed.

Gospel: Jesus "raised His eyes to heaven", a common posture of prayer in both the Jewish and Graeco-Roman worlds, and prays that He may be glorified and that His followers may enjoy eternal life. These are interconnected, just as are God the Father and the Son, and Christ and His disciples.

Fr David

World Communications Day

The theme for this year's Day comes from Ephesians 4:15: Speaking with the heart: 'The Truth in love'. Good communications are vital to proclaiming the Church's message. The Second Collection is for the Catholic Communications Network, the media office of the Bishops' Conference. See p8 for a letter from the Bishop of Salford. The Pope's full message can be read or downloaded at cbcew.org.uk/wcd23-papal-message/.

Supply Priests

The Capuchin friars are assisting today, at St Thomas's and at West Kingsdown.

Congratulations to Oliwer Metelica, who receives Holy Communion for the first time today at the 11:15am Mass.

The day when we recall the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles is the third most important day in the Church's Calendar.

Items for the Borough Green Food Bank can be put in the box in the entrance at St Joseph's. Items for the West Kingsdown Food Bank can likewise be left in St Bernadette's.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.

May the month of Mary

The month of May is traditionally a time dedicated to veneration of our Mother, Mary. Mary is sometimes called the 'Queen of May'. Mary, Mother of the Church, cares for us day in, day out, interceding for us constantly. For that, she deserves an entire month in her honour!

Here are some suggestions for you to honour and show our love for the Blessed Mother. Even though we are well into May it is not too late to start honouring Mary!

Make a Marian Shrine

Set up a special place in your home to honour Mary. All you need is a statue or image of the Blessed Virgin. You can decorate it with some flowers, especially lilies, roses or irises (which are traditional symbols of Mary). It makes a perfect focal point for the whole family to gather round and recite the Rosary or just the Hail Mary. Make a set time each day; it only takes a few minutes.

Children can compose their own prayers to Mary, and draw pictures or make models to place at a Marian Shrine.

Pray the Rosary

The Holy Rosary is recited in St Thomas's after the Saturday morning Mass, and this is an ideal opportunity to learn how to pray the Rosary. It can easily of course be prayed at home, either individually or as a family group.

Learn about the Marian apparitions

Just google Lourdes, Fátima, Guadalupe, Knock or Walsingham and learn about Our Lady's appearances and about her instructions in them.

Each of the various Marian Shrines has a different message and a different charism. At Fátima, for example, Mary instructed that the Rosary should be prayed daily, whereas at Lourdes she commanded the faithful to go on pilgrimages and to do penance. Walsingham focuses on the Holy Family.

A little known apparition of Our Lady was in Cambridge in 1251, when she commended the Scapular (meaning 'do work in her honour'). Walsingham is the national Shrine of Our Lady in England.

Read Bible passages about the Virgin Mary

Passages such as the Annunciation, Jesus' birth, the presentation of Jesus in the Temple, Mary at the foot of the Cross, and Mary praying the Novena before Pentecost (in today's First Reading) are well worth reading and prayerfully meditating upon.

You can also study the Church's teachings about Mary. Why, for example, do we believe that Mary was immaculately conceived without original sin? The Catechism of the Catholic Church is a good source of such information.

Participate in the Parish May Procession

The whole family and the whole parish can join in this, which is today (Sunday) at 3:30pm at Most Holy Trinity, Otford. This includes the ancient tradition of crowning the statue of Our Lady. This represents Mary's status as Queen of Heaven, and the flowers represent her beauty and virtue. It is also a reminder to the faithful to strive to imitate Our Blessed Mother's virtue in our own lives.

The Hail Mary

*Hail Mary full of Grace,
the Lord is with thee.
Blessed are thou among women
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus.*

*Holy Mary Mother of God,
pray for us sinners
now and at the hour of our death
Amen.*

LETTER FOR WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY

CATHOLIC BISHOPS' CONFERENCE OF ENGLAND AND WALES

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY

Speaking with the heart. "The truth in love" (Eph 4,15)

Sunday, 21 May 2023

Dear Father,

We celebrate World Communications Day on Sunday, 21 May, and as the Lead Bishop for Communications, I have been reflecting recently on the big news stories of the past 12 months - both inside the Church, and beyond. It has very much been a tale of monarchs and popes. Firstly, we mourned the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II who served our countries steadfastly and faithfully for just over 70 years and welcomed the announcement of a new King - His Majesty King Charles III.

We have also prayed fervently for the successors of St Peter. Recently, of course, we prayed for Pope Francis as he recovered from a respiratory infection in hospital but, as 2022 drew to a close, it became apparent that Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI was in poor health and close to returning to the Lord. We prayed, as a Catholic community, for the repose of his soul and we were able to celebrate his life and considerable contribution to the Church. In a special way, we gave thanks for his memorable Papal Visit to the UK in 2010.

The motto for that historic visit came from St John Henry Newman - Heart speaks unto Heart. How fitting that speaking from the heart is the central theme of Pope Francis' message for this year's 57th World Communications Day. In recent years, the Holy Father has reflected on the building blocks of good communication. The heart, he says, is the common factor motivating us "to go and see" and "to listen". It enables us, having listened, to "speak the truth in love". You can read or download the full message here: cbcew.org.uk/wcd23-papal-message/

Please encourage your communities to assist this crucial work by generously supporting the second collection which is taken up on the day. Please visit, and encourage others to visit, the Bishops' Conference website: cbcew.org.uk. Here you will find the latest news, features, events, podcasts and more. You can also sign-up for the communications team's weekly newsletter.

With every blessing,

Bishop John Arnold
Lead Bishop for Communications
Bishop of Salford
